

TMH Story

The Meeting House is a vibrant and growing multi-site church in south central Pennsylvania. Being historically vested, with over 100 years of history serving and loving the surrounding community. Our mission is to help people find life by following Jesus together and we are looking for an Auditorium Campus Pastor who can lead through collaboration, innovation, and the development of strong leadership teams.

The Meeting House is located in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. Carlisle's cultural environment is a diverse mix typified by its historic downtown, unique architecture, quaint shops, and award-winning restaurants as well as historic sites, and multi-cultural events. Our location within the Cumberland Valley provides numerous recreational opportunities: biking, hiking, kayaking, hunting/fishing, boating, and snow skiing. We are a 2 to 3 hour drive from some of the largest cities in the U.S. — New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and Pittsburgh. In 2010 Forbes named the Carlisle/Harrisburg area as the second best place to raise a family in the United States and in 2015 Livability.com ranked Carlisle as the 16th best small town in the U.S. Carlisle is one of Pennsylvania's most treasured historic communities. Located in picturesque south-central Pennsylvania, Carlisle's history is rich. Our community is flavored by the presence of Dickinson College, Dickinson School of Law of Penn State University and the U.S. Army War College known throughout the United States and abroad for their respective curriculum. The story of The Meeting House stands as a powerful illustration of God's faithfulness, provision, and grace as well as a community committed to generously serve and lead. For over 100 years, God has taken our story and transformed it into a way of telling his story. We continue in that legacy as we strive to be authentic followers of Christ.

The Meeting House is a part of the Brethren in Christ, an Anabaptist denomination, which essentially means that we attempt to take Jesus seriously by endeavoring to live out his radical, counter-cultural teachings as set forth in Scripture, and especially embrace the lifestyle prescribed in the Sermon on the Mount.

The Meeting House reaches nearly 1,000 adults, children, and youth each Sunday across three campuses. We currently have 1 Sunday gathering time meeting in 3 venues with 3 distinctive styles of worship. Our sermons are live in one venue and video-simulcast into the others. Rather than growing in one location and building bigger buildings, The Meeting House aims to work collaboratively and serve locally.

The successful candidate is a man or woman who will have strong relational skills and be capable of systems thinking. As the Auditorium Campus Pastor at The Meeting House at our Carlisle location, you will be offered a competitive salary, a flexible working environment, and full benefits with additional ministry and education compensation for further individual and professional development.
